With Goals To Set And

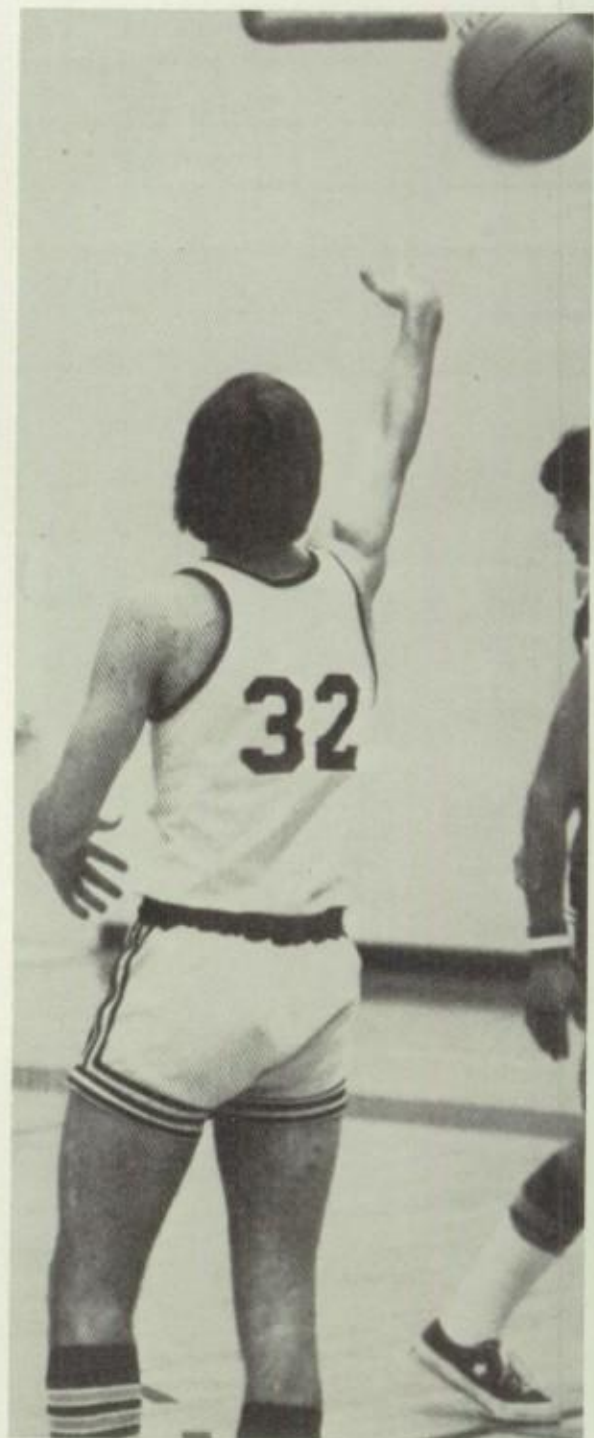

Two bits four bits.?!?!

I don't think I can handle three of them pussycats at once.

Even when surrounded by the opposition, they still try . . .

Alright ball if I say go in . . . go in!!

With Time Never Ending

In a tough situation like this, team work plays an important part.

Just a little bit further and I'll have it!!!

Gee James, a security blanket and a bottle?!

Athletes Keep Striving

Do you really have to get pushy about it???

A tisket a tasket I'm gonna' make a basket!!!

Right off the tip of my fingers.

I've got to aim this one at the basket!

Don't just stand there with your mouths open — H E L P!

You CAN'T use the volleyball serve for basketball.

To End In Defeat

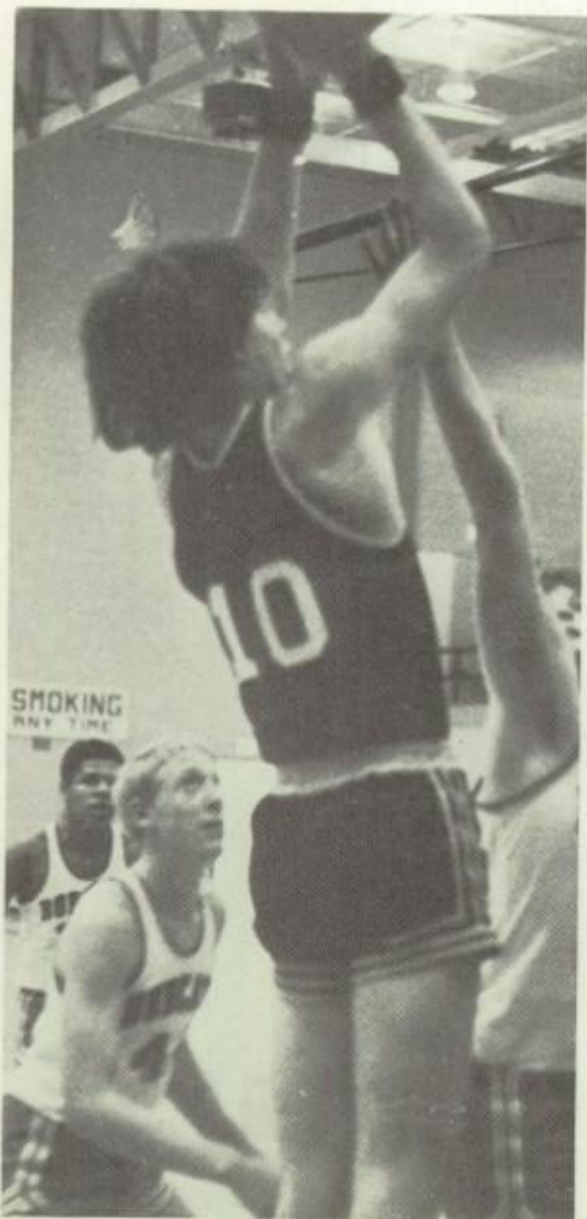

Who had the orange basketball??

Knee high to a referee!!!

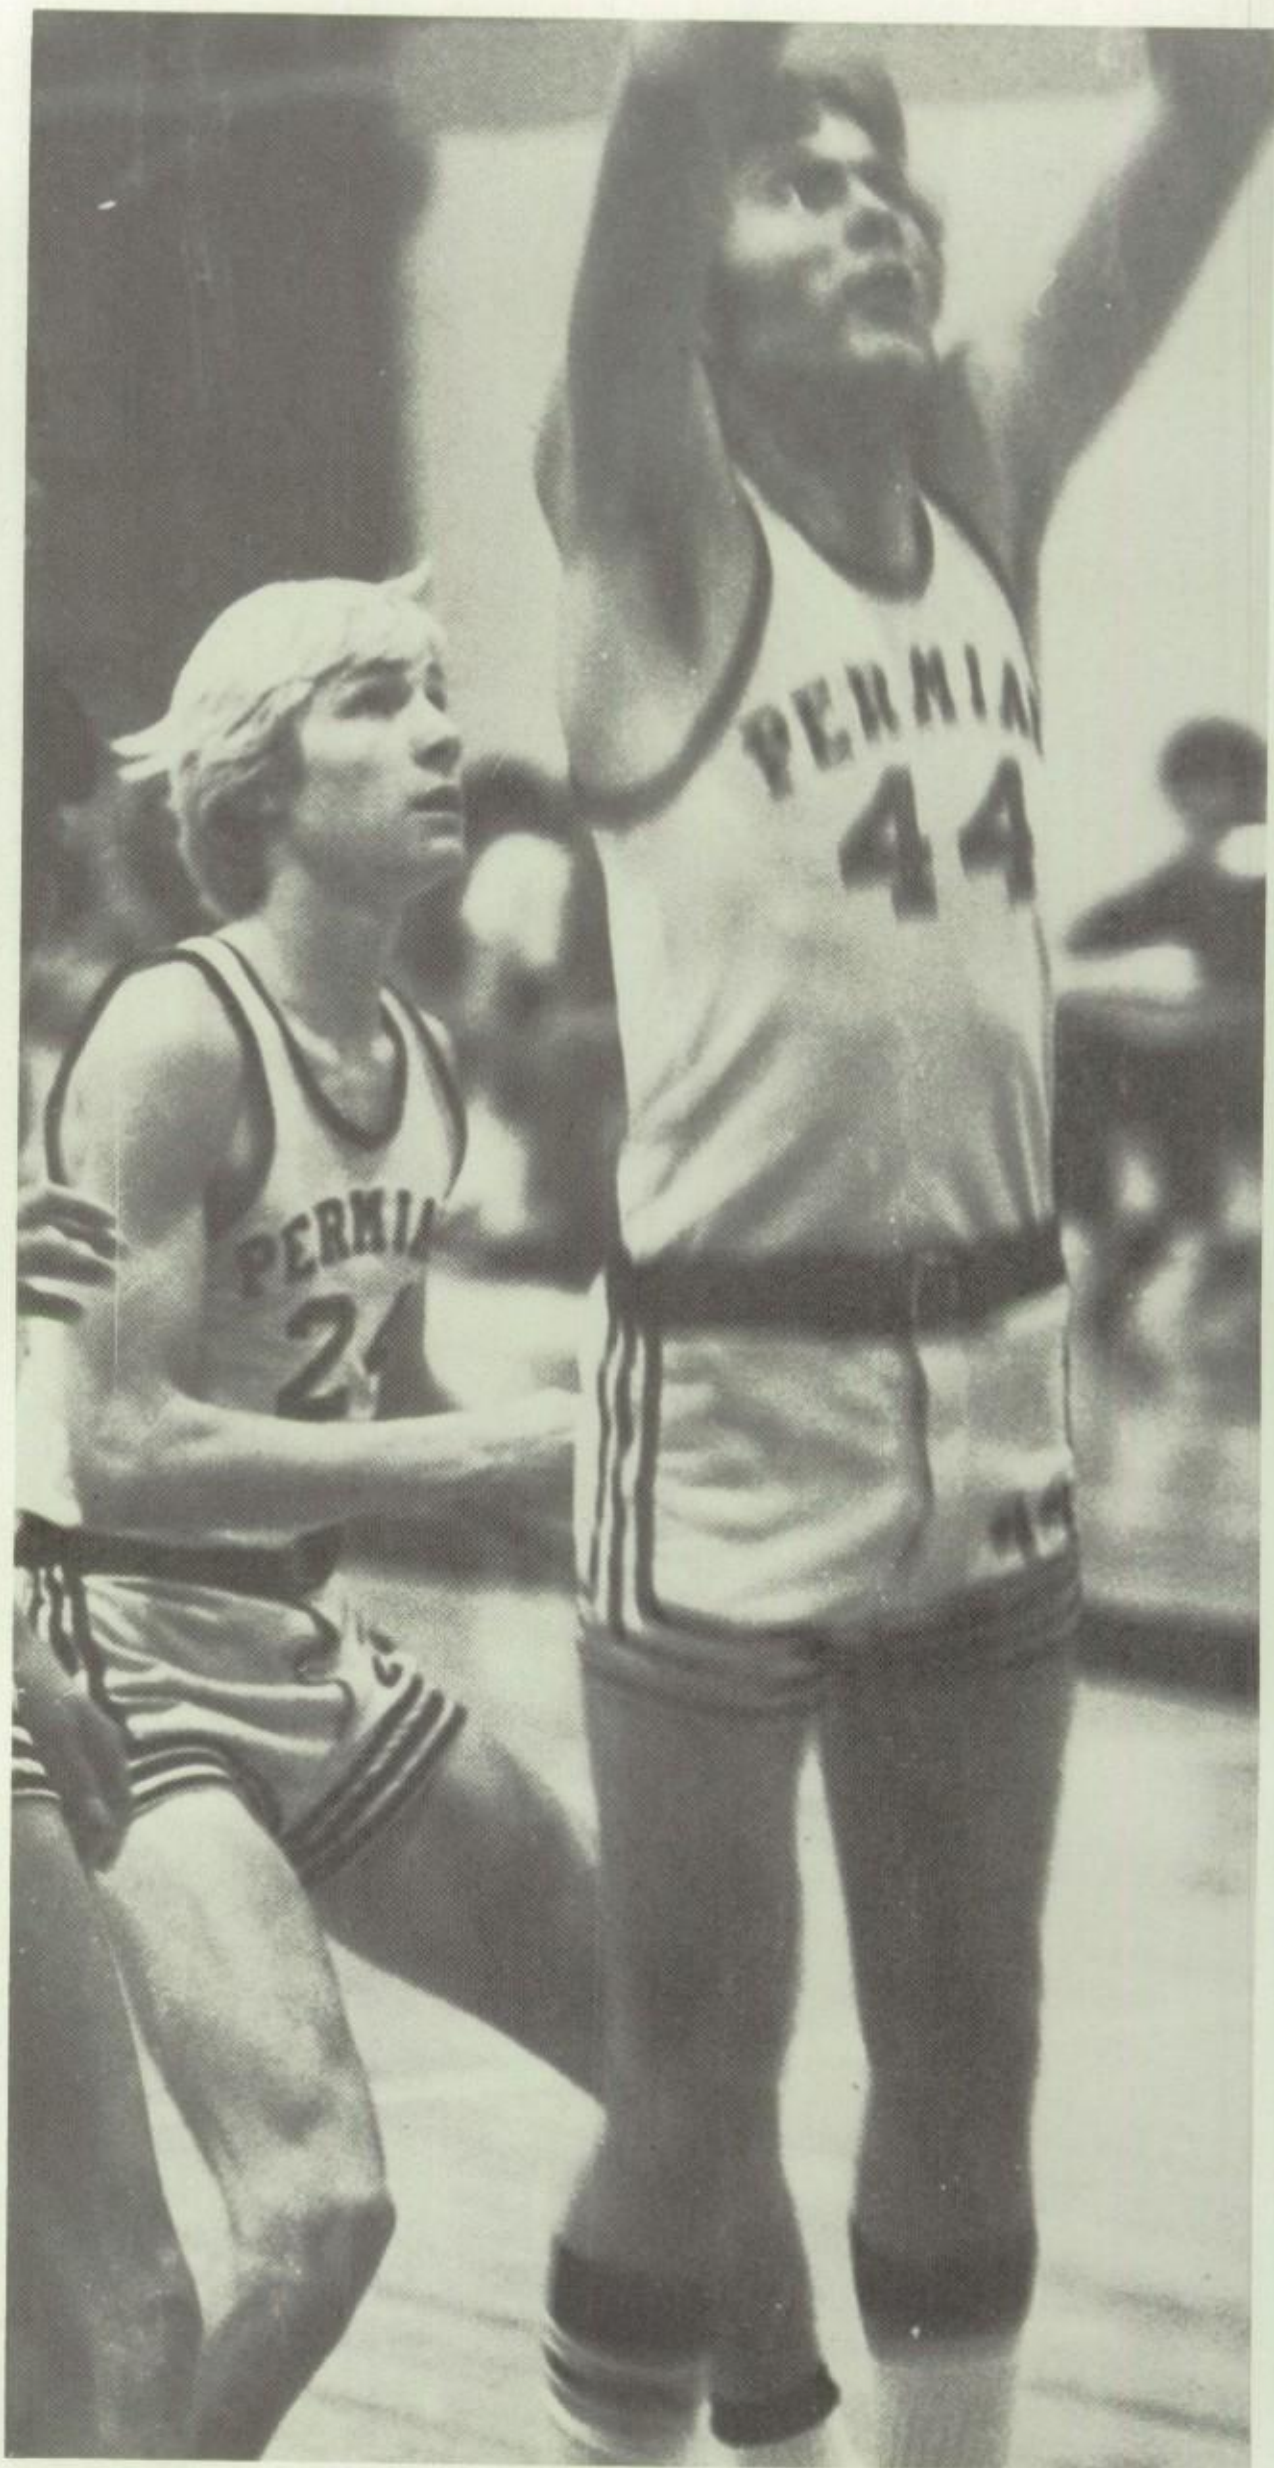

Is Still To Win

I sure hope this is the right goal.

BIONIC MAN?!?

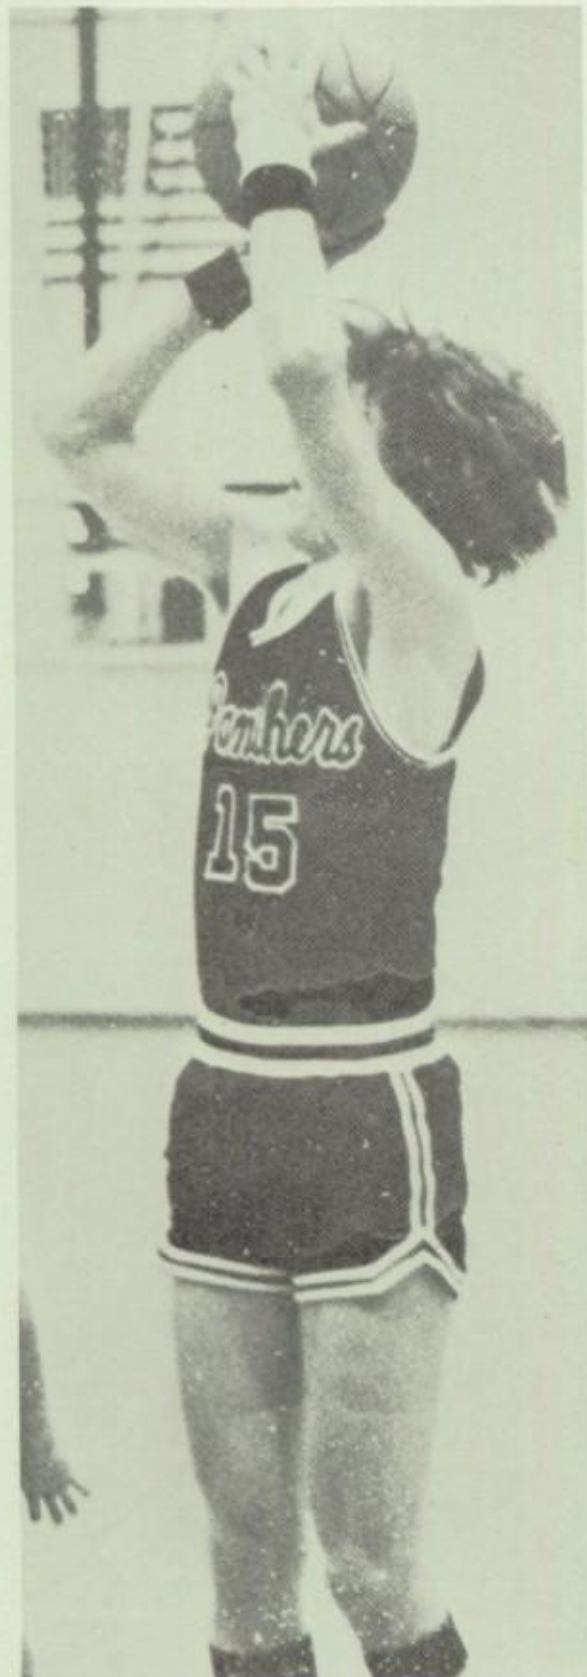

If you miss this one we are here to back you up!!

*To Do
Your Best*

I'm right behind you so don't you try it.

The NBA sure could use someone like me!

PANTHER TEAM CAPTAINS — Karen Kirby and Bud Dickerson.

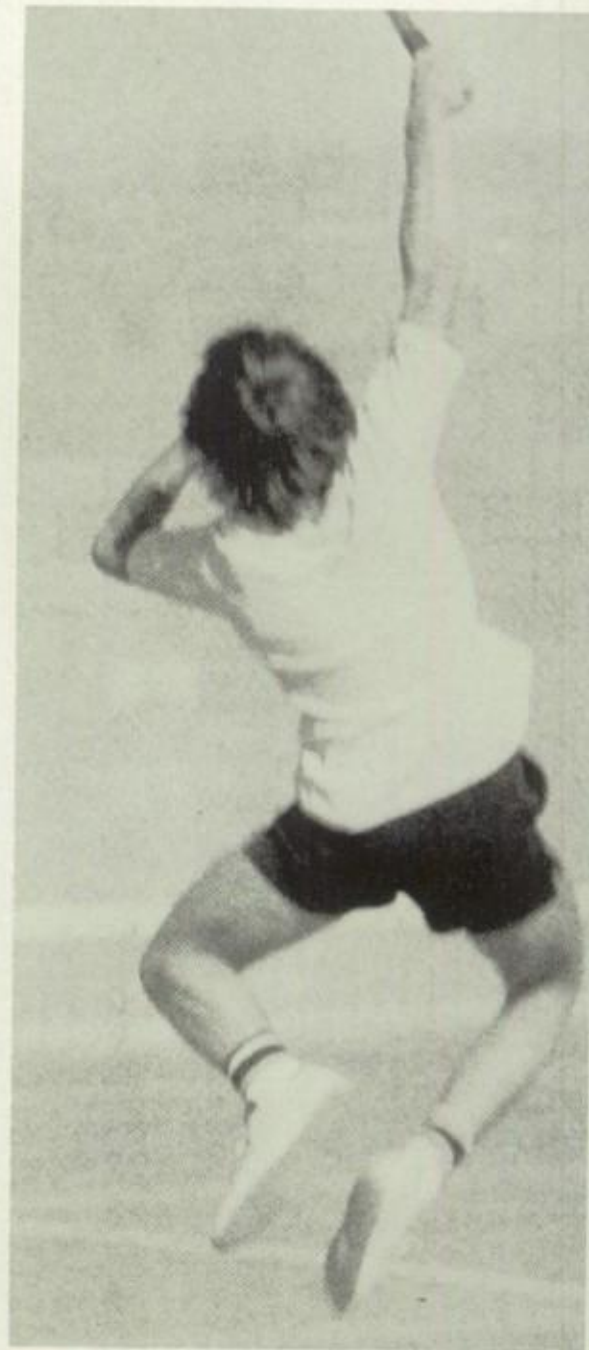

Does the tongue really help, Rhonda???

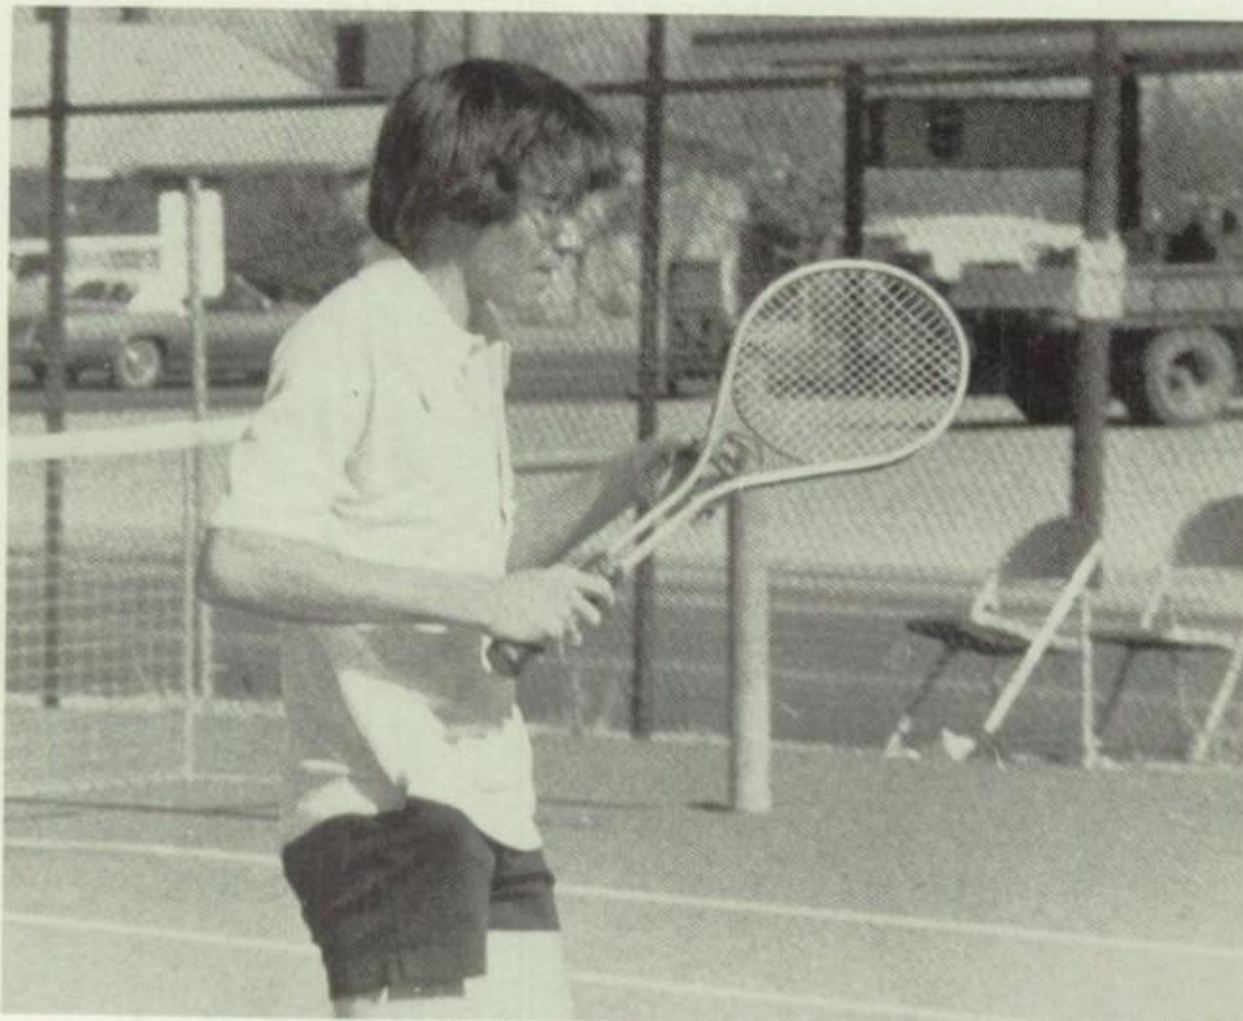

And To Look To The Future

Is Coach Box telling them a dirty joke or strategy???

Is this tennis, or is someone practicing their ballet dancing?!?

Hey there big fella, I think it was the racket.

I keep telling myself this is the way to do it.

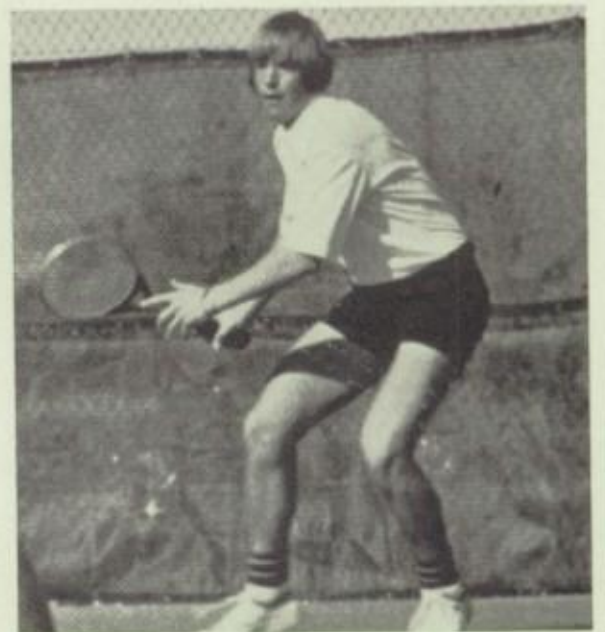

For The Just,

Boy's doubles team of Stan Gifford and Mike Madden.

I hope the coach sees this shot.

What do I do? It is coming to me . . .

Girl's doubles team of Rhonda Newton and Karen Kirby.

Time Is The Best Of Champions

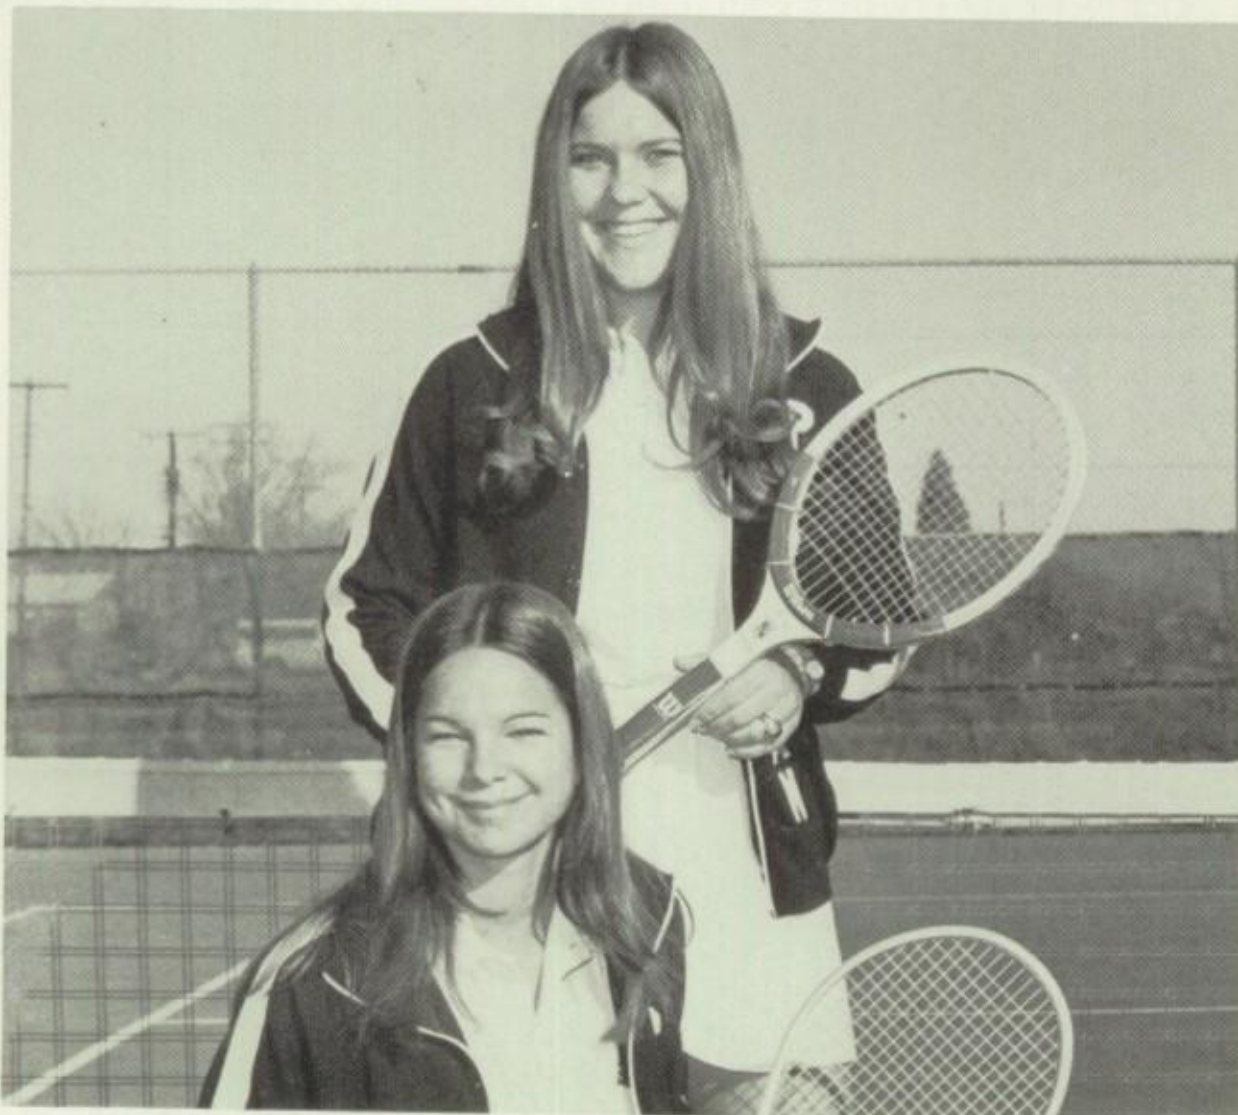

Boy's doubles team of Tad Brown and Bud Dickerson.

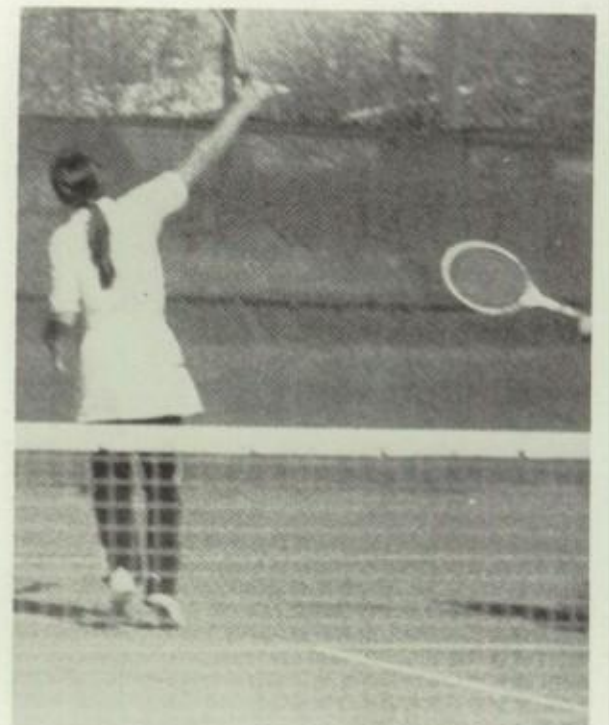

Bump and Boogie and have some fun.

Come on, I dare you!

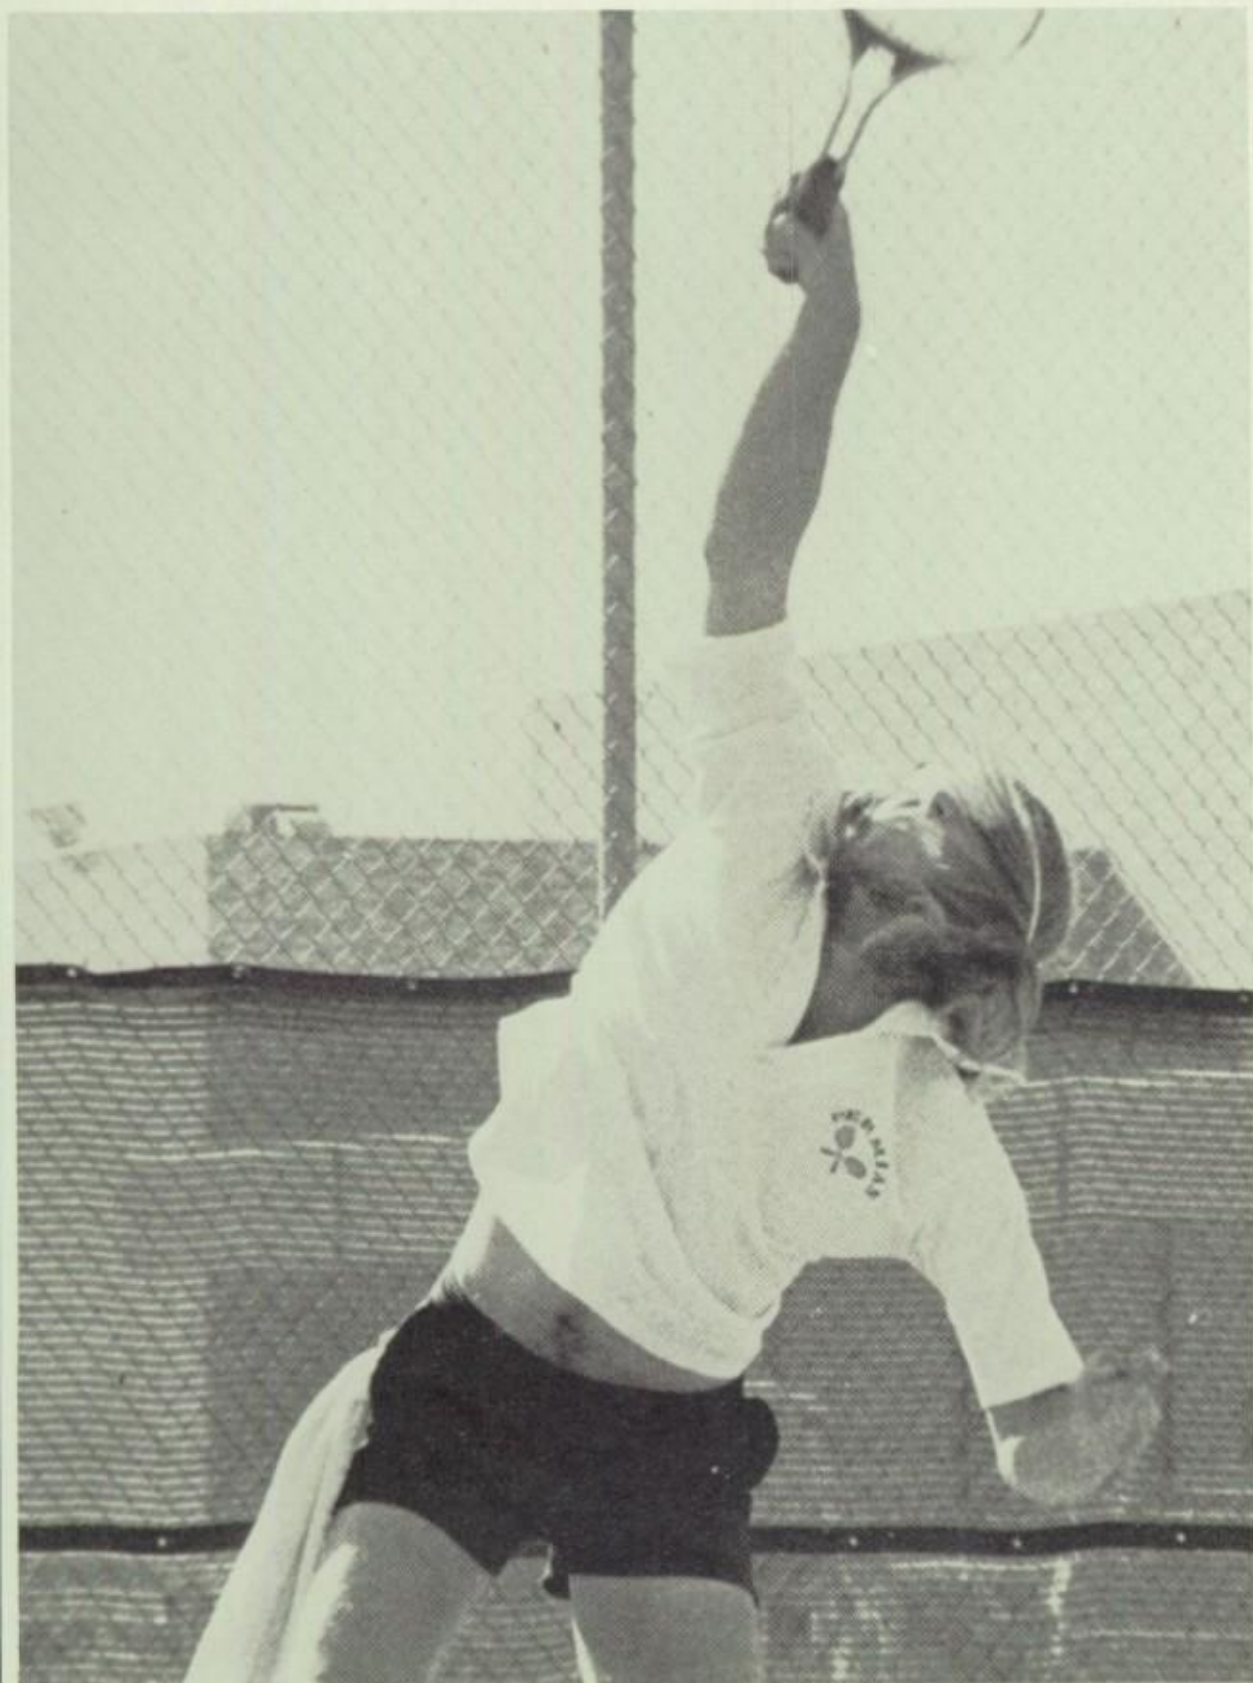

Girl's doubles team of Renee Thiebaud and Laurie Silberman.

You usually don't play with your back to the net!

Time, Whereof The Memory Of Man

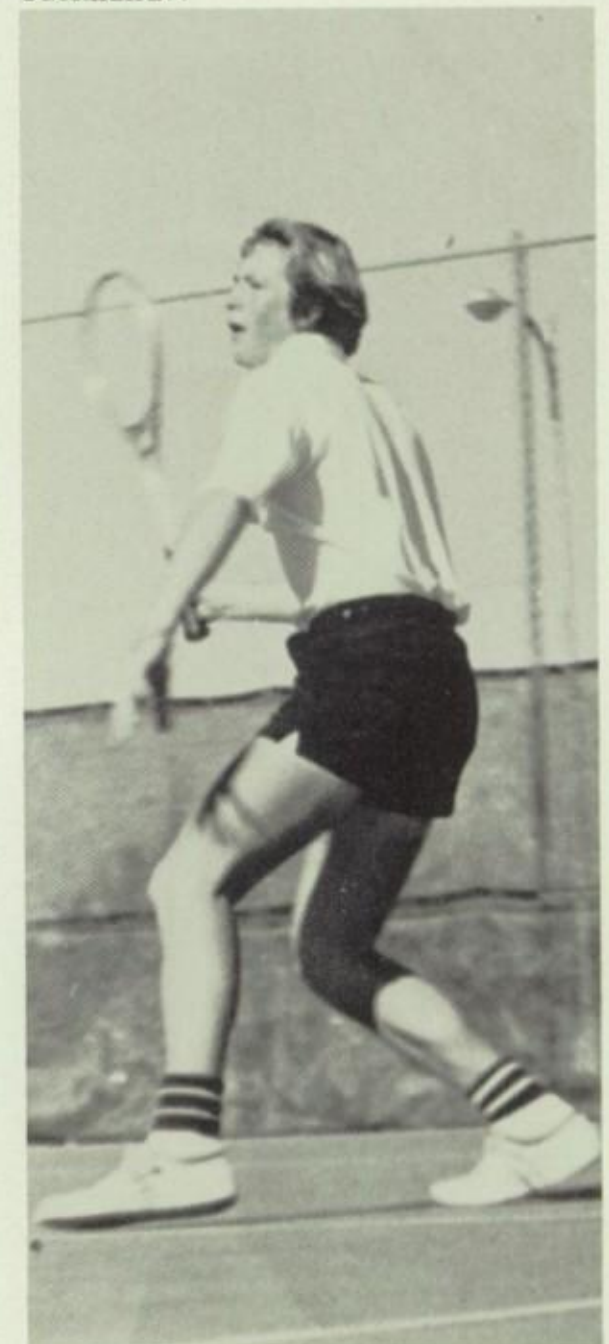

You really don't know where the ball is gonna land until . . . The Beginning.

You follow through with your motion . . . The End.

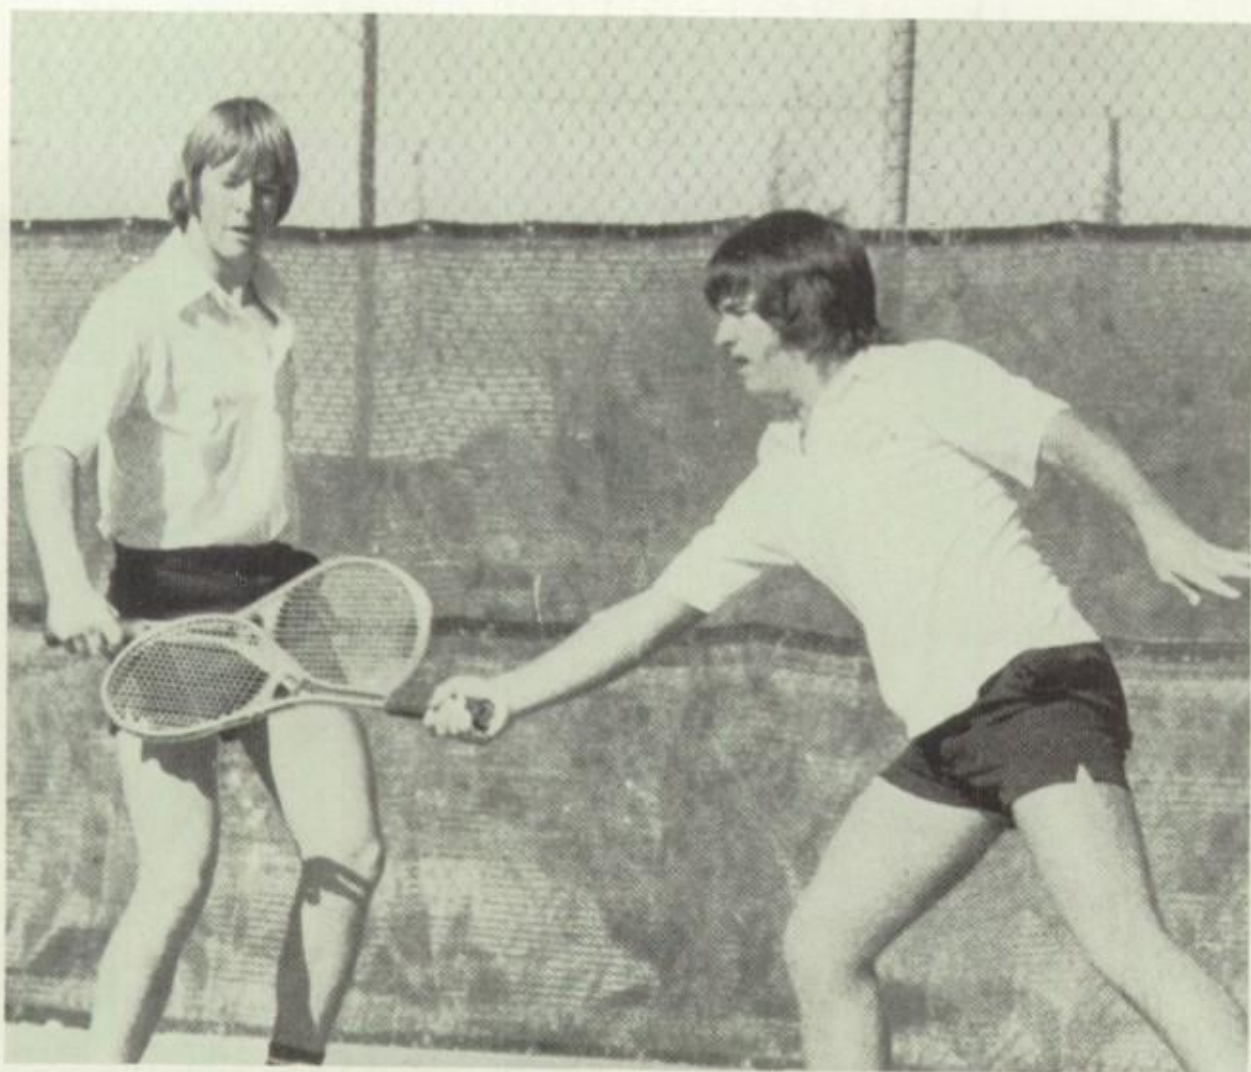

Is this the backend? Oh, I mean the backhand??

I'll just stop the ball and then see what happens.

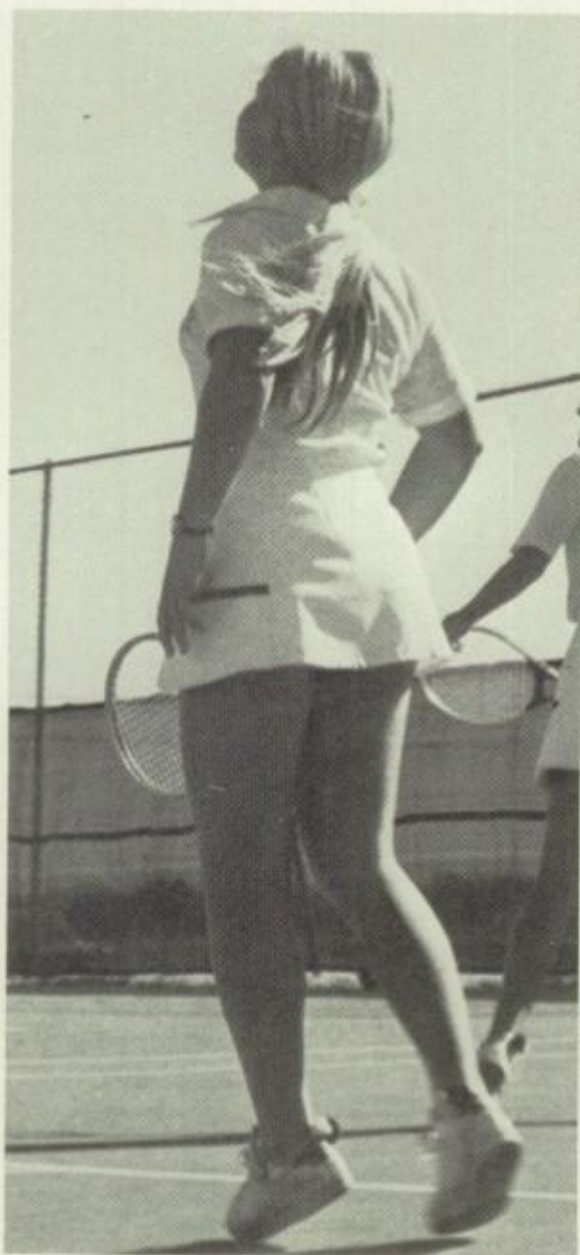

Runneth Not To The Contrary.

Now this is what I call team work!!!

ANTICIPATION.

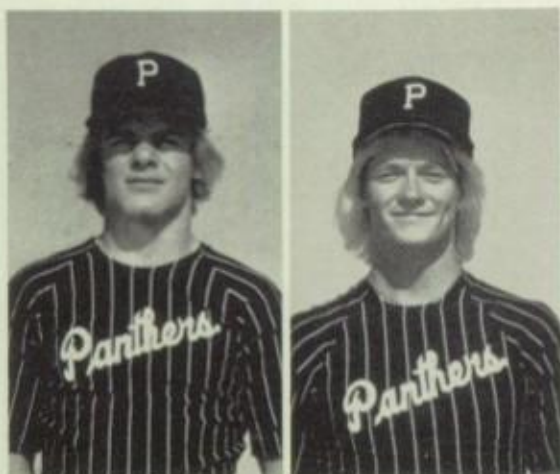

If only I could see the ball.

The disgust you share when you make a mistake.

Smiles And Laughter Light The Path . . .

On August 18th, the Student Council had an orientation that gave the sophomores a look at high school. The sophomores got acquainted with their 1st period teacher and the commotion of the halls.

Cha-cha-cha!?!

You don't think he's that way cuz, 872 new sophomores are coming?

Am I a Sophomore? What else is there!

I'll bet the seniors put this up to confuse us!

A Wish Becomes A Reality . . .

This year "Holding On to Yesterday" was the theme of Homecoming '75. Student Council and the Pepettes had teas for ex-Permian students. After the victory over Midland Lee, a dance was held in the PHS Cafeteria.

Gee your hair smells terrific!

A kiss of royalty.

A parade to remember.

The Drums Start Sounding The Beat . . .

Go black, go white, go fight!

The end of the end?

Should I or Shouldn't I? I will!

I can dig it!!

The four stooges?

Na, na, na, na, na, na, na!

And The Spirit Comes Shining Through.

I wish I could dance!

This little light of mine . . .

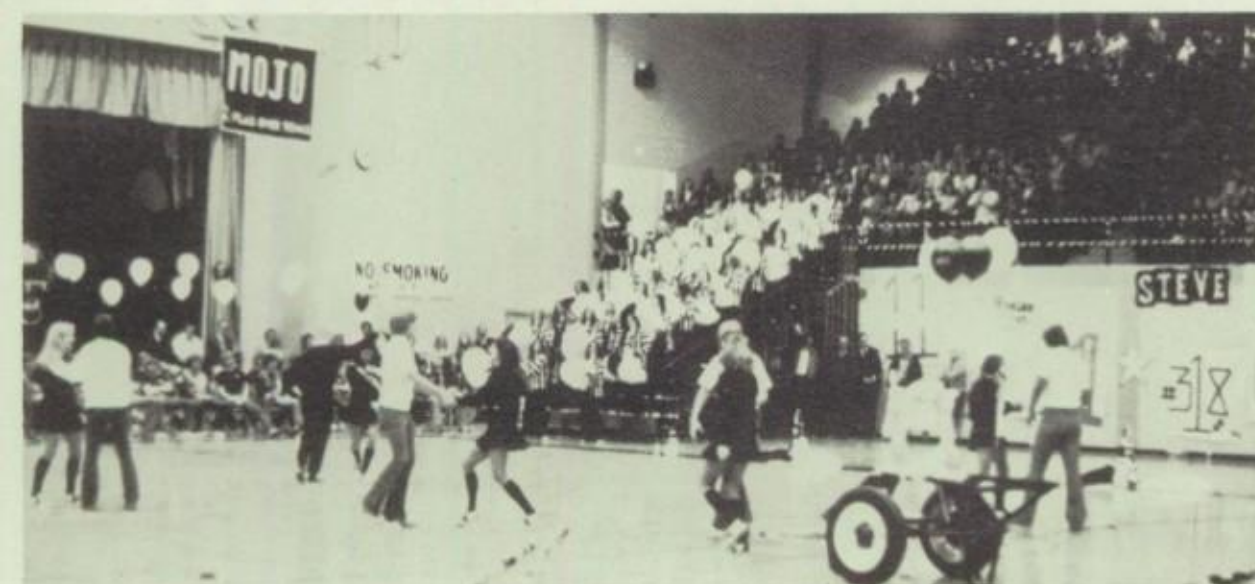

Mojo burns on!

From dingy maroon to beautiful black.

Oh, beautiful, for spacious skies . . .

The boogie-woogie bell boys of Permian High.

We, coaches, players, band, cheerleaders, and Pepettes put together an unbeatable mixture of spirit and pride.

Unafraid And Young, We Went Strong . . .

In the MOJO MACHINE'S opening game of the Texas State Class 4A playoffs, the Panthers took advantage of numerous turnovers to give the ROHO of Wichita Falls Rider a kicking they will remember for sometime. A first quarter that produced a 20-0 lead in favor of Permian allowed the some 9,000 faithful who traveled to Wichita Falls to savor the final three quarters that ended with MOJO 33, ROHO-13.

A prelude to another victory.

What now coach?

Time out!

Good show spoon!

Catch me if you can!

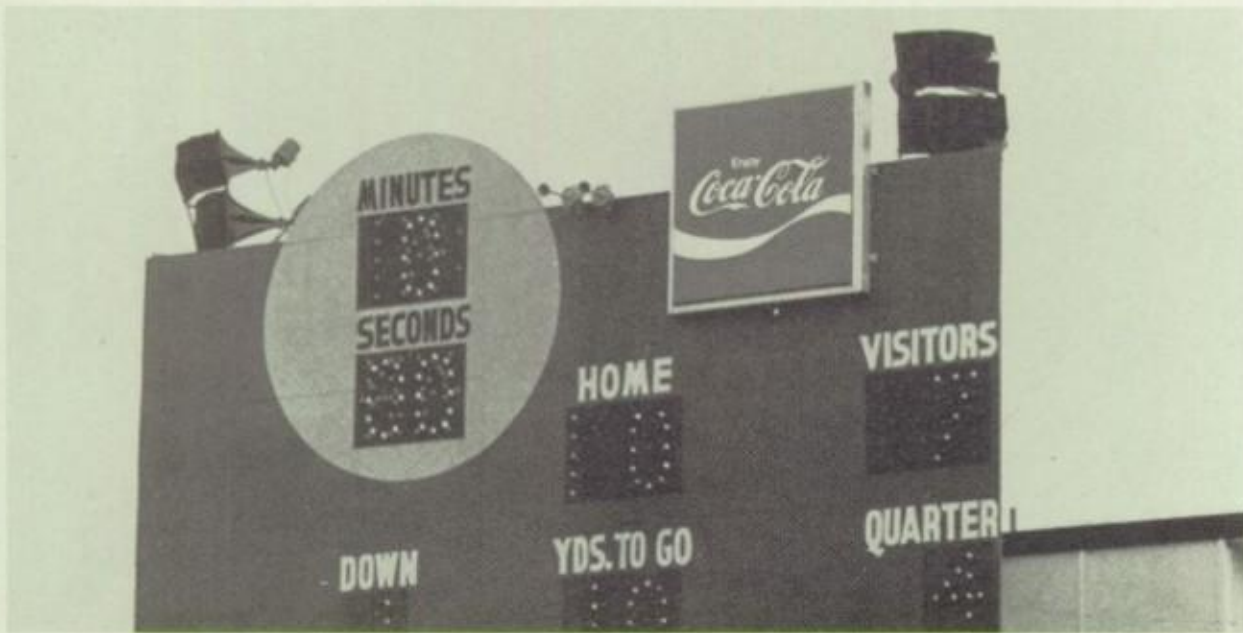

Say your prayers buddy.

A good showing pays off.

Heading Wild-Eyed For Our Goal

Another victory for Mighty MOJO!

With a mere 87 seconds showing on the Abilene P.E. Shotwell stadium clock it looked to be the end of the road for 1975 as the Panthers were behind 7-3 to Arlington Sam Houston. Although the ball was in possession of MOJO, it was at their own 17 yard line and even the most dedicated fan held little hope. But on this day, defeat was not to be known. The MOJO MACHINE got cranked up and seven plays and 84 seconds later, the score stood PHS-10, Arlington-7.

Heel, toe, kick!

You have a spot on your seven.

All this just to tie a shoe?

I can see myself!!

Where's the ball, where's the ball?

Clashing In A Mighty Brawl . . .

In a rematch of an earlier played game in Permian history, the MOJO MACHINE downed the El Paso Coronado T-Birds. This quarter-final playoff game was held in El Paso's Sunbowl before some 20,000 partisan fans. The game started on a bad note as Coronado jumped out to a 14-0 lead but Permian battled back to tie the score at 14 apiece. From here a defensive struggle took place with El Paso yielding a third penetration that spelled their doom.

Being pushy gets you 20 yards back.

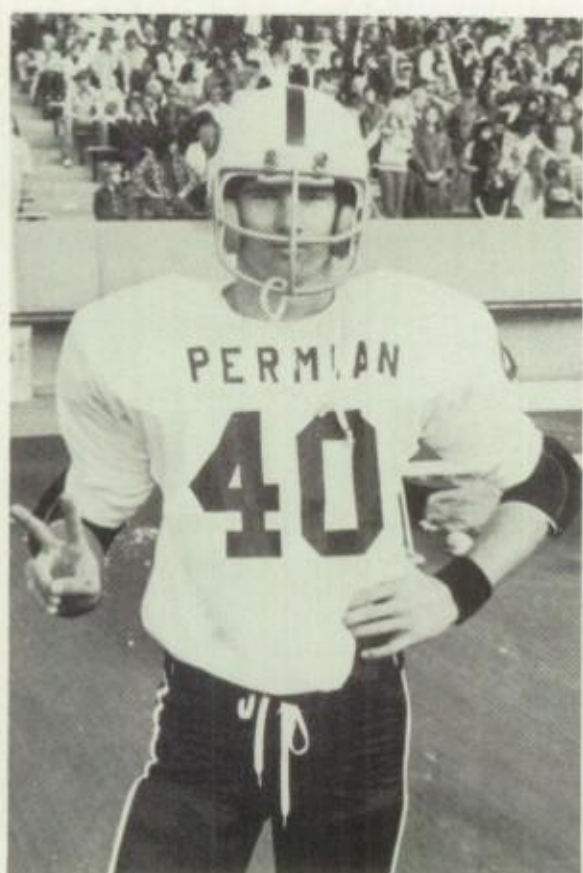

If you think that . . .

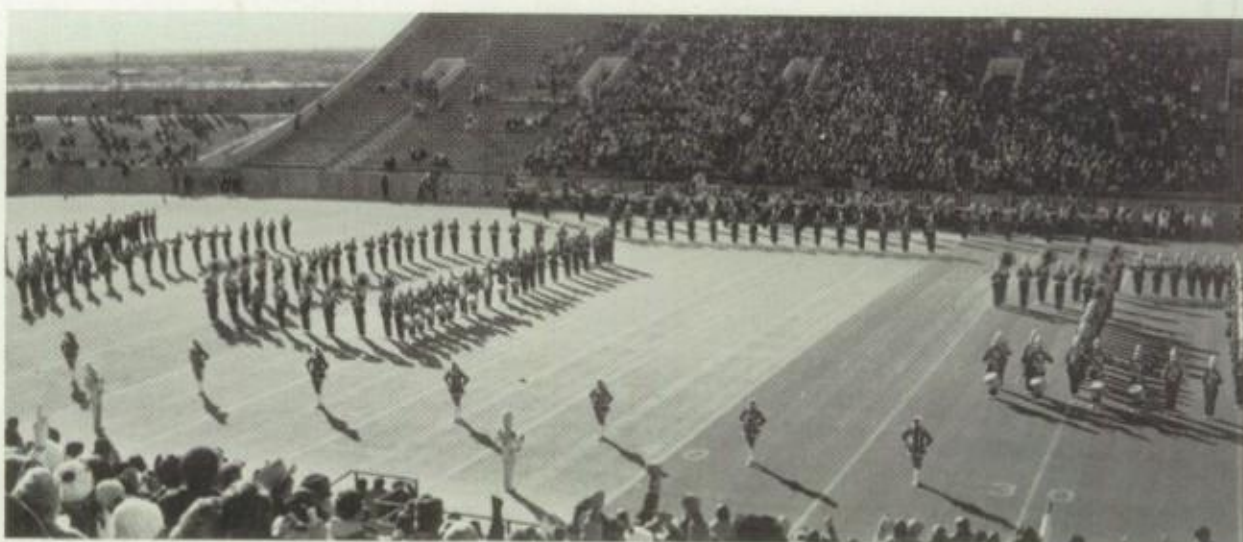

Defense, Defense, Defense.

We give up!

Mighty MOJO's mighty cool.

No. 1 for sure.

We Led To A Pulsing Victory.

In what may be the most memorable game in Permian history, the MOJO MACHINE downed the Number one ranked team in the state. This game provided the Panthers with a national record and a trip to the state championship game. The record, a 62 yard field goal by Russell Wheatly, proved to be the winning points as Permian once again took a thriller. The final score at Jones Stadium read 10-9 with the Longview Lobos on the short end.

Head on collision that paid off.

The wheelbarrow formation.

A barren move.

One. Two. Three. Crunch!

When they go down, they go.

Scorned, We Left With Heads High

The State Championship game of 1975 turned out to be a performance that lacked in showing the true Permian Panther team. A nightmare first quarter spelled defeat for MOJO as they fell 20-10 to the Port Neches Groves Indians. This game marked the end of a greatly successful season. All the players and coaches are to be congratulated for their efforts and hard work.

Crying out the sounds of gain.

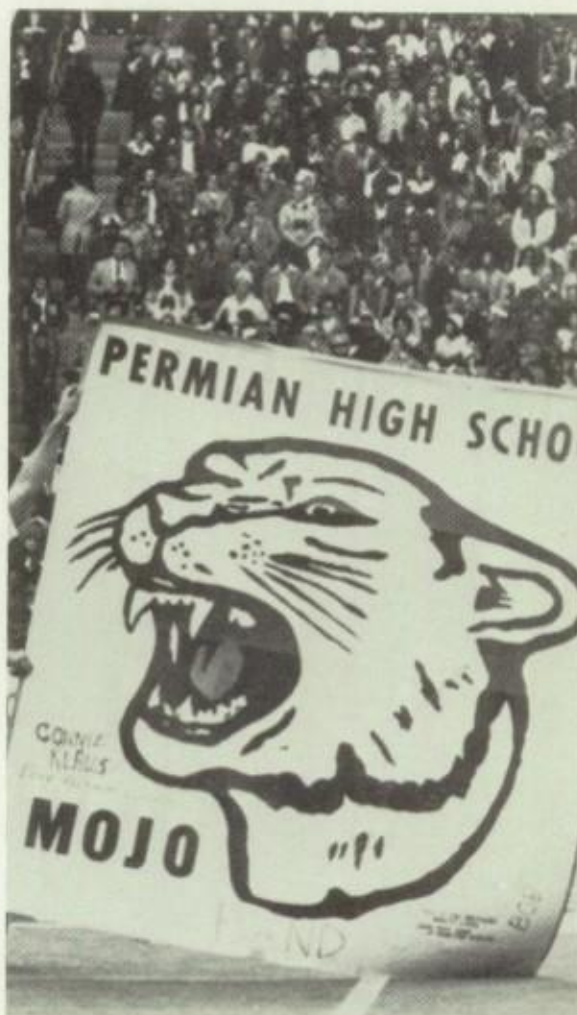

You've got it, now go!

In an instant every trace fell.

Wings took hold of empty space.

Fierceness flowed out.

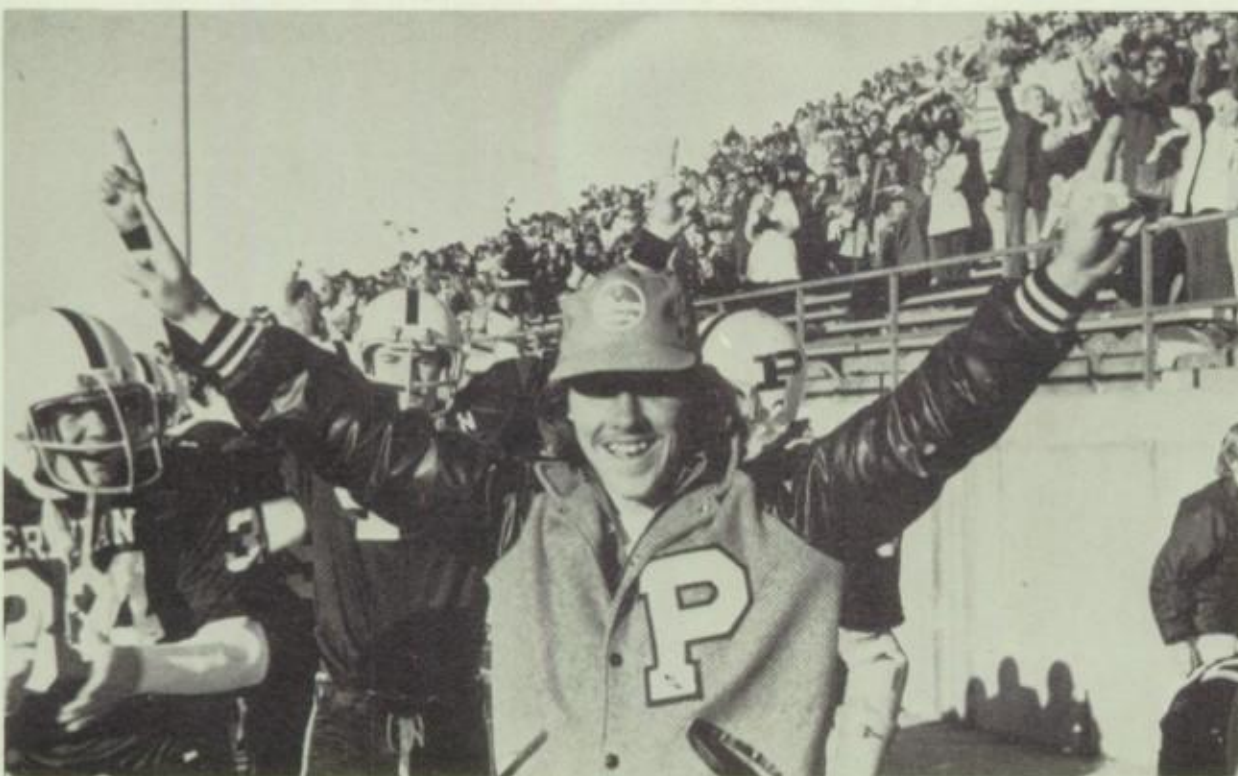

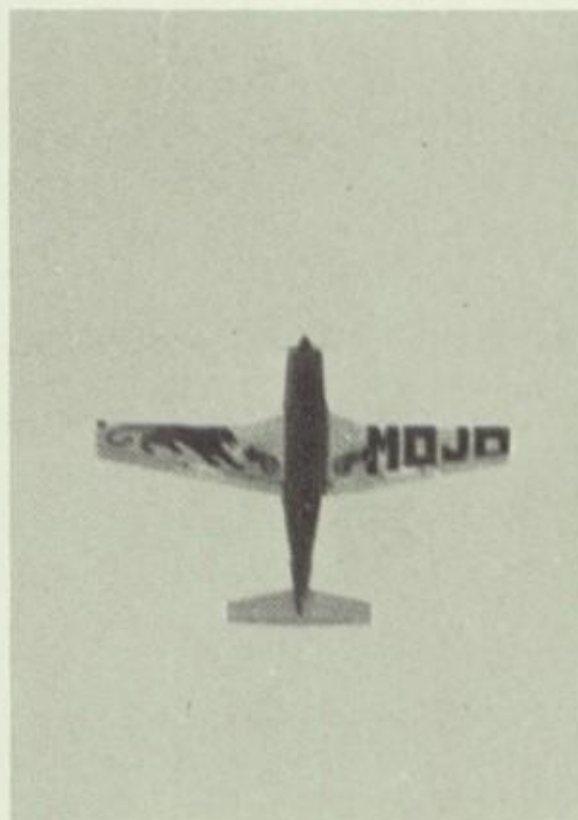

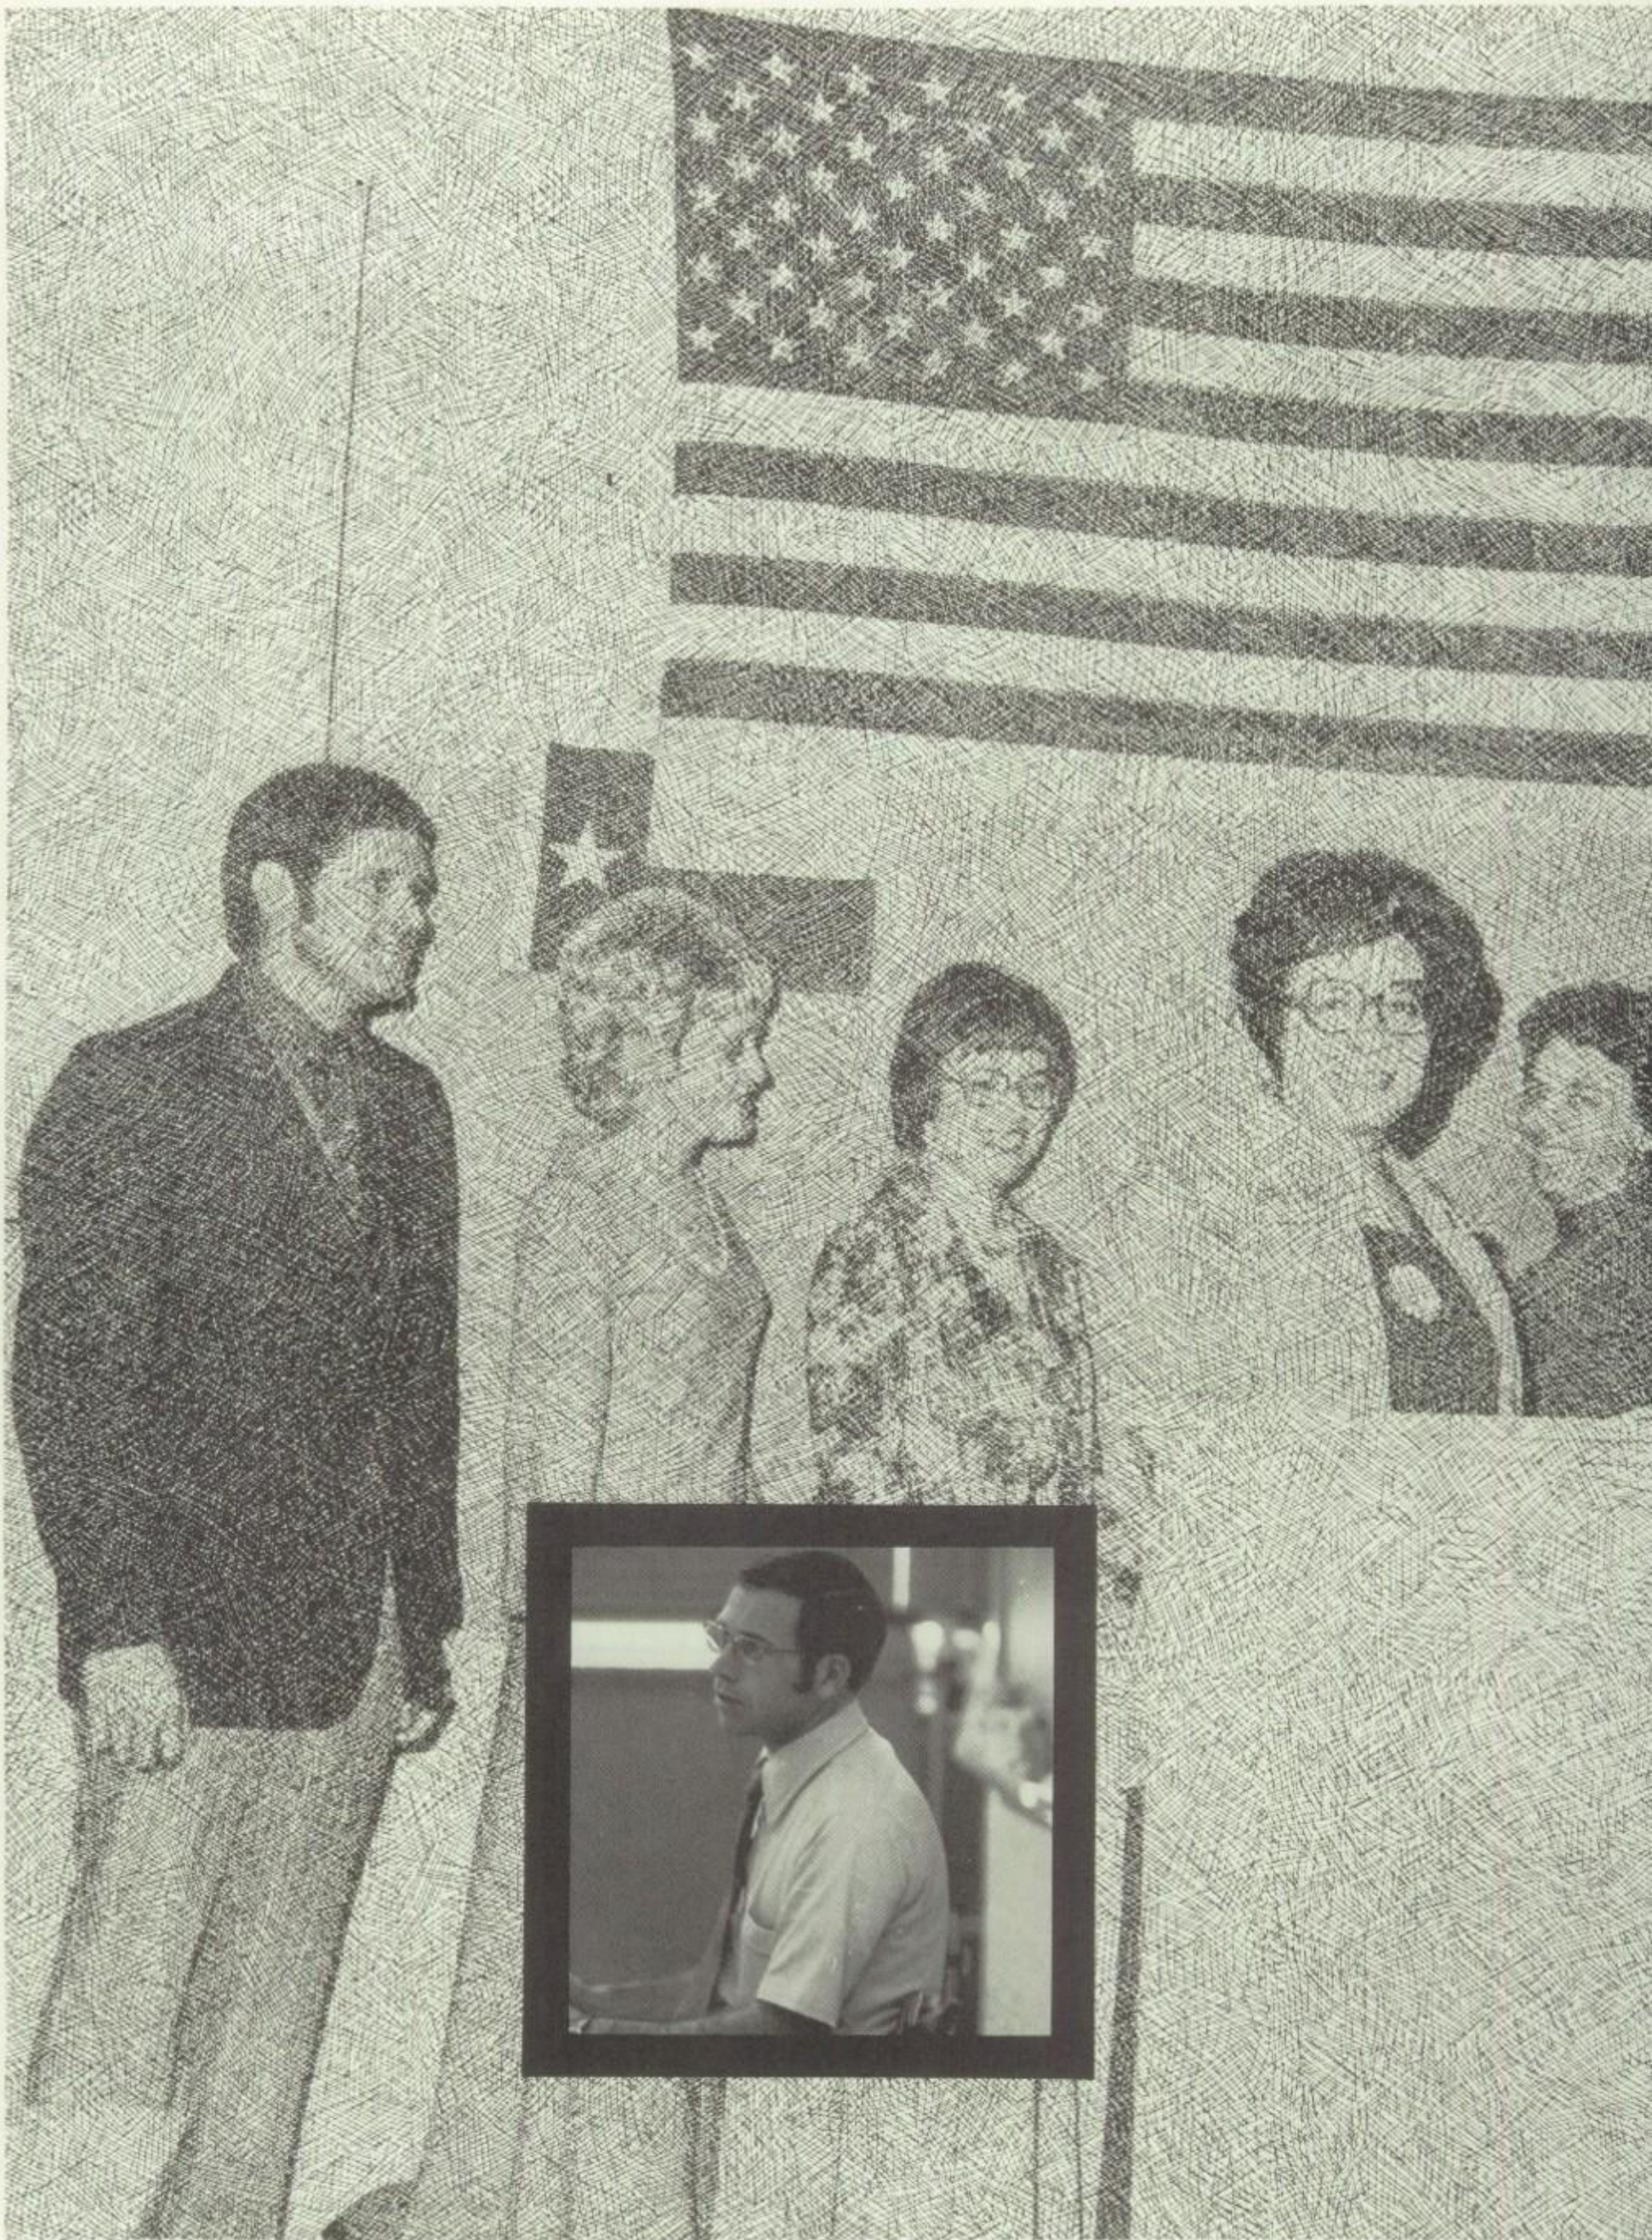

The ball is high, their head is low.

With The Closing Of The Days We Remember

As the Panthers charged into another year, spirit was the outstanding quality. It was shown with the newly adopted banner, with the spirit "dress-up" days, with cheers as the MOJO plane flew over the stadiums and with the band's never dying zest.

And Tomorrow's Reflection

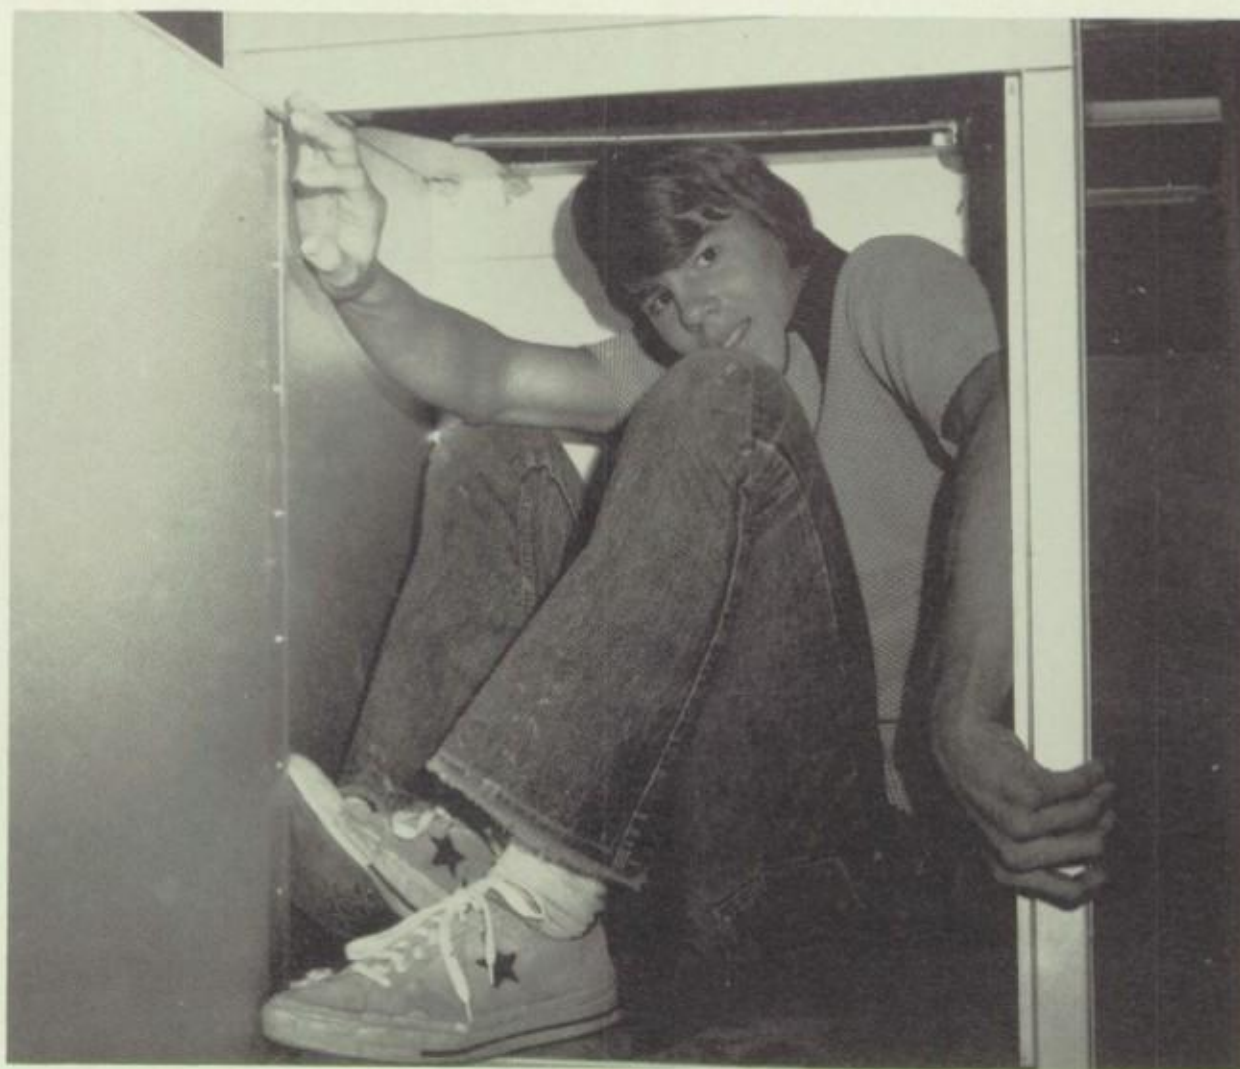

Oops! I tripped!

Inside looking out.

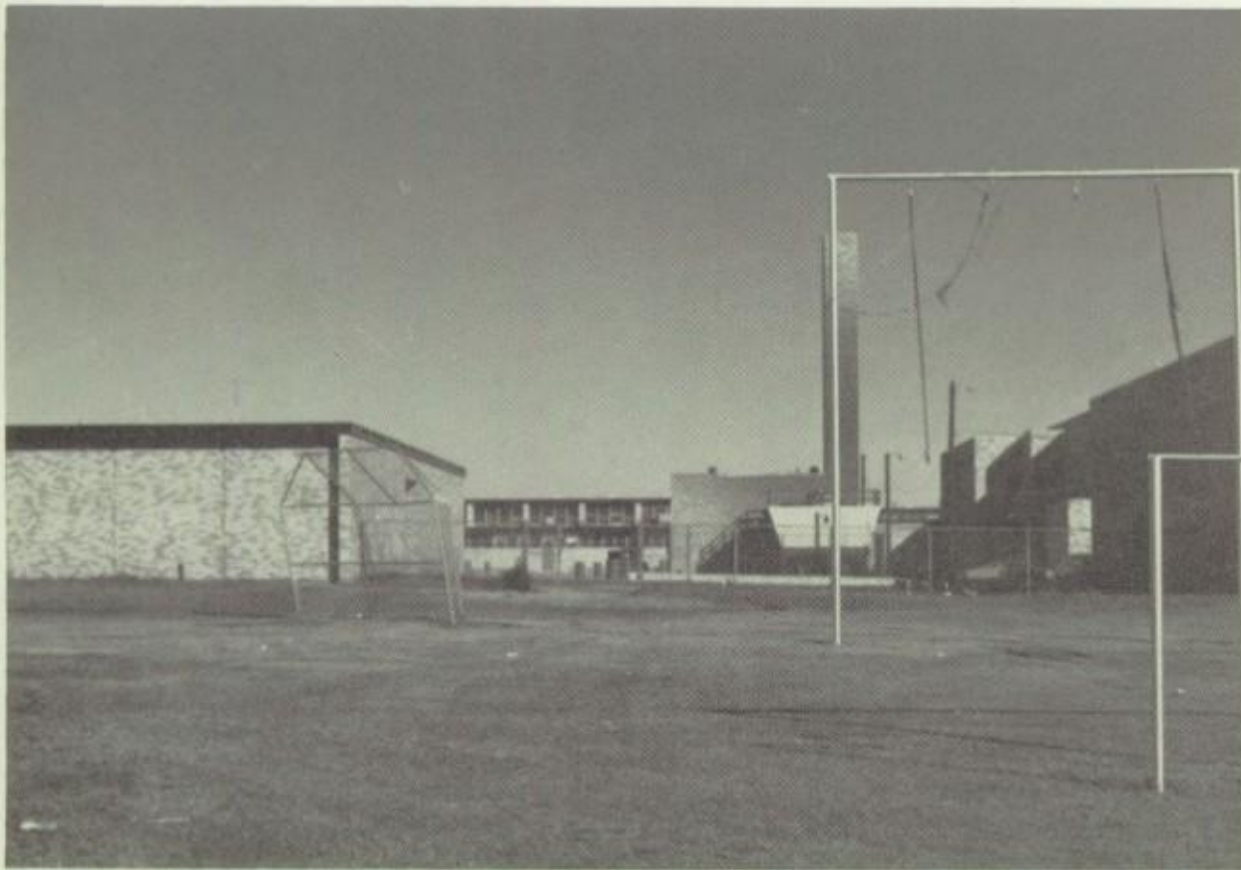

Take me to your principal.

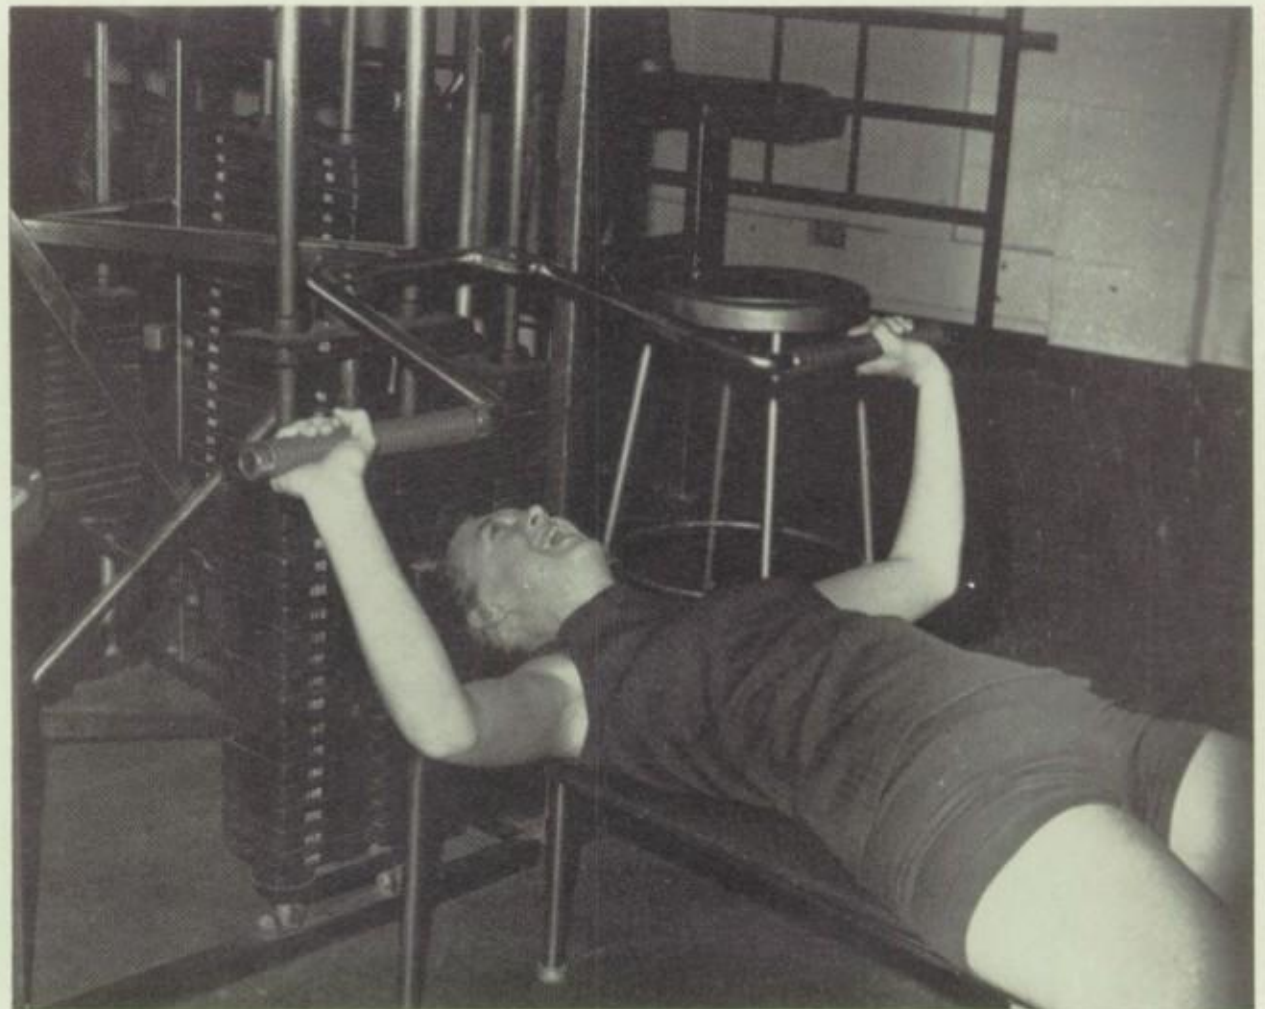

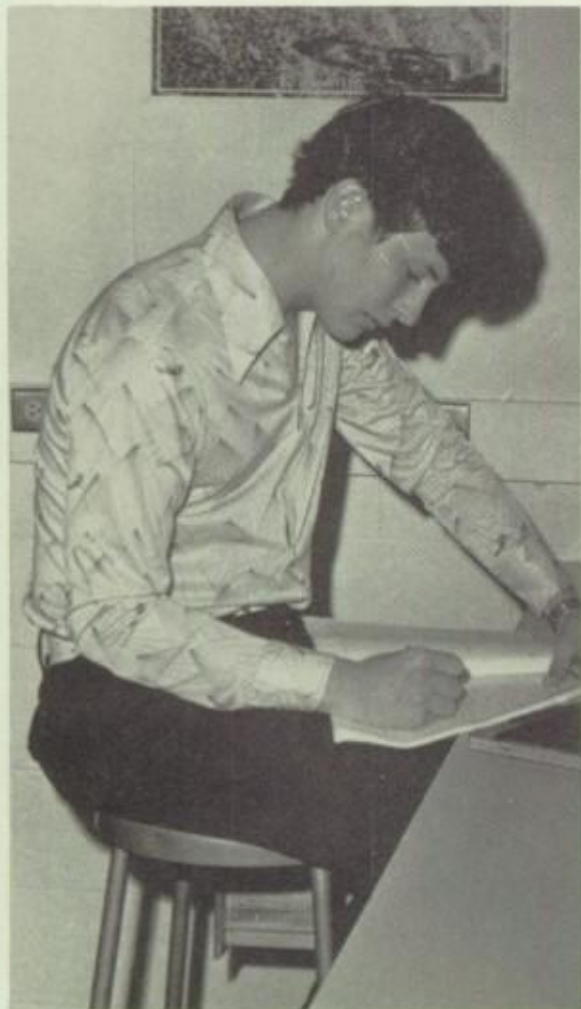

I didn't know they had solitary confinement instead of D-Hall.

As time passes on, as the days follow each other, as the eras of existence make themselves known and then slip quietly away, our lives change, grow, and ripen. Through Permian's doors pass sophomores, wide-eyed and eager, anticipating the changes that will occur in their high-school years. Down Permian's halls walk juniors, having experienced those first moments in life as newcomers but still awaiting the last moments of high school. And exiting through Permian's doors, the seniors, adults passing that first bend in the river of life. The excitement of living lies before them.

Each of us, in our own way, is an era. A part of life with its own personalities and characteristics. The changes that occur in high school are the changes that prepare us for our mature, seasoned experiences later on. These changes occur because of several factions of living such as classes, teachers, Pepettes, choir, band, orchestra, sports, art, clubs, and last, but perhaps most important, friends.

As we approach the end of this fast-paced year, this era in 1976, we pause a moment to look back on the events of the year. The "surprising" football team, the afros, and senior 50's day. These memories plus our own personal experiences of the year will be cherished forever. Each little happening of the year affects our outlook on life. Each thought, memory, hope, and existence makes us realize that each of us is a rare, momentous part of life.
